

Dr. Alanna Baillod

Dr. Baillod is a Geriatric Psychiatrist and an Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Saskatchewan. She completed her MD and Psychiatry residency at the University of Saskatchewan and completed her Geriatric Psychiatry subspecialty training at the University of Ottawa. Dr. Baillod's clinical interests include long-term care consultation, community outreach to seniors' homes, outpatient psychiatry, and ECT. She is also interested in medical education and is currently the Psychiatry Clerkship Director at the University of Saskatchewan, the residency program Competence Committee Chair, and the Associate Program Director. She is also involved in teaching residents and medical students.